IBÉRICO TAPAS BAR

Llerena, a little piece of Extremadura in the heart of Spain. A small family business that is based on this small village: Jamón y Salud (Jamon & Health). It has been running for over four generations and is specialised in Iberian pork products, especially in acorn-fed pork products. This family of farmers, who has been working since 1939, has decided to bring its first and only store to the city of London in order to share their own products.

The Ibérico tapas bar called Llerena is the place to try some of Extremadura's best food: roasted meats, the pungent, creamy Torta del Casar cheese and the finest jamón (ham).
